

Artios Gallery

Kseniia Sribna Biography

Kseniia Sribna is Ukrainian artist based in Kyiv. From a very young age, Kseniia was always surrounded by paper, pencils and paints. She graduated from the National University of Design with a degree in Graphics Design. She also has a solid background in arts education acquired at the Art School. The young artist held several personal exhibitions, co-organized the “Trud-Art” creative union, and took part in major international art festivals in Kyiv such as “Gogolfest” and “Book Arsenal”. Currently Kseniia is actively engaged in painting and illustration, and likes to experiment with techniques.

Education

1999 – 2009 Art School, since 2003 studied at the Sergey Rybnitsky's studio, Zaporizhzhia, Ukraine

2005 – 2009 College with a degree in Graphics Design, Zaporizhzhia, Ukraine

2009 – 2014 The National University of Design with a degree in Graphics Design Kyiv, Ukraine

Solo Exhibitions

2012 “Colors of Music” art restaurant “Shliapa”, Kyiv, Ukraine

2011 “Colors of Music”, musical school, Kyiv, Ukraine

Group Exhibitions

2020 "Art of Being Alone", Artios Gallery, online

2020 Kurazh Market, Kyiv, Ukraine

2020 “4th Annual “Patterns, Textures & Forms”, Light Space & Time Online Art Gallery

2016 Kurazh Night Market, Kyiv, Ukraine

2016 Pysanka festival, St. Sophia's Square, Kyiv, Ukraine

2015 Art Picnic in the Expo Center, Trud-Art collaboration, Kyiv, Ukraine

2014 KardiaGRAM, in the framework of the Book Arsenal, SLAVA FROLOVA GROUP, Trud-Art collaboration, Kyiv, Ukraine

2013 Book Arsenal, Creative lab Manuscript, Trud-Art collaboration, Kyiv, Ukraine

2012 Book Arsenal, Creative lab Manuscript, Trud-Art collaboration, Kyiv, Ukraine

2012 Gogol Fest, Trud-Art collaboration, Kyiv, Ukraine